SCHOLARSHIP SEARCH TIPS

- ✓ Beware of scholarship scams! Warning signs to pay attention to: the company asks for payment, has no contact phone number, requests a credit card number, uses a mail drop instead of a return address, and GUARANTEES scholarships.
- ✓ Start Early! Do your research, keep a list, and meet deadlines. Apply for as many scholarships as possible!
- ✓ Be specific! Include ethnic background, religious affiliation, first generation college student, athletic abilities, community involvement, anticipated major, etc. in your scholarship search. The more specific, the more scholarship opportunities!
- ✓ Visit FCE/Your H.S. Career Center! Utilize your available resources!
- ✓ Find Free Money Everywhere! McDonald's, Walmart, and Target offer scholarships, as do local organizations such as The Rotary Club and The Kiwanis Club. Your religious organization or your parents' employer may also offer scholarships.
